

Consent form for pupils – images, film, words and phrases

The Women of the Future Ambassadors Programme is a unique initiative that connects award-winning women with sixth-formers. The objective of the programme is to provide students with mentors and role models, thus strengthening the pipeline of talent among Britain's younger women. Women of the Future values your support and promises to respect your privacy. The data we gather and hold is managed in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. Please contact Women of the Future or go to the relevant website <http://ambassadors.womenofthefuture.co.uk/> if you require further information.

Name of School:

I _____ (name of the teacher accompanying the students/coordinating with Women of the Future) take responsibility for collecting, prior to the event on _____ [date of the event], the parental consent for the students attending for them to be photographed and/or filmed by Women of the Future at _____ [print name of event], and agree that these images and/or film as well as any words and phrases provided by the pupil (which may be edited into stories) can be used in Women of the Future's materials and in any other manner whatsoever in relation to Women of the Future's promotional activities, advertising or any other usage whether in written or soft copy form (which may include online publication).

I agree that nor I, the school or the parents have copyright or ownership of the images taken, film taken and/or words and phrases provided, and that Women of the Future and its funding partners have the right to use the images, film, words and/or phrases in all publicity and media throughout the world, including but not limited to regional and national press and online media. I agree that the pupil may request for his or her consent to be withdrawn, but acknowledge and agree that any images, film, words and/or phrases that have already been used with consent may still be in circulation and Women of the Future will not be able to withdraw these.

I understand and agree that Women of the Future will keep these images, film, words and/or phrases and use them for such period as it considers appropriate.

I confirm that I will collect parental consent for every student attending the event at _____ who I included in the name list submitted to Women of the Future and to inform their team of any of the students has not been granted consent prior to the event. I take full responsibility for consent taken by means different from the forms provided.

I also agree to do what is possible to prevent students who have not been granted consent to take part in photos and videos and to do the same if I was unable to contact the parents with regards to the consent.
